Expectations Ahead!

- Animals must be in the barn on Wednesday January 26 and weights turned in by 6:00 pm
- It is on the calendar for you to be at the barn after school on Wednesday.
- The board has not yet determined if the show will be spread out or we will be on regular schedule
- If you show on Thursday, you must be at the Sale on Saturday in order to participate. NO EXCEPTIONS if choice was involved...
- The barn will be cleaned and set up for the sale following the show on Thursday.
- The barn must be cleaned following the sale on Saturday so plan on being at the barn until released
- THERE IS A DRESS CODE before, during, and after the show --- it is a conservative & one everyone knows what is allowed and what isn't.
- There will be a concession stand may be minimized/limited to follow allowable protocols.
- Don't have an answer about quarantined students but will address it at some point.
- Let the ag office know what you are planning on exhibiting as soon as possible.

As of now... the major shows (with some modifications) are moving ahead with plans to have the shows.

January 31 is the deadline to submit names for Area and State Officer, Chapter Officer, Texas FFA Scholarship, and Lone Star Degree

The ACT

KNOW HOW TO GO!

Scholarships...Srs, ACT

is a scorable part of the Texas FFA Scholarship Application. If you are planning on applying and have not taken the ACT, you are behind.

Jrs, now is the time to start working on the Texas FFA Scholarship Application and the ACT score is important. Now is the time to start taking the ACT. Don't wait.

Despite some dropping the ACT requirement for selection or admission, the Texas FFA did not. It is still required and is a scorable part of the application.

Highlights

Already saving pictures for next year's poster. JUST ONE thing could land you there

It's what you make of it... What you do today becomes who you are, where you've been, and where you are going.
